Hi Erin,

We are still tracking the final 404(b)1 analysis for the end of February. I'm trying to have the conceptual mitigation plan ready by the end of January, but I suspect it will be closer to the end of February as well. I'll let you know when we update the mitigation plan schedule.

Happy holidays to you, too.

Mike

Hi Mike,

Thank you for letting us know about the December meetings. Do you have an updated estimate on the 404b1 alternatives analysis and/or the draft mitigation plan?

Happy Holidays,

Erin

Subject: 404 coordination meeting cancelled

I'm cancelling tomorrow's 404 coordination meeting, and the meeting on Dec 31 (New Year's Eve).

DWR's EIR/EIS team reviewed and segregated the comments received on the 404 application into those comments that are EIR/EIS-specific, 404 application-specific, and those with both. We are moving ahead with a plan to address all comments by the appropriate responders.

That's all I have to report at this time. Please let me know if you have questions.

Mike
